An action programme for the elimination of child labour in rural India

Greetings!

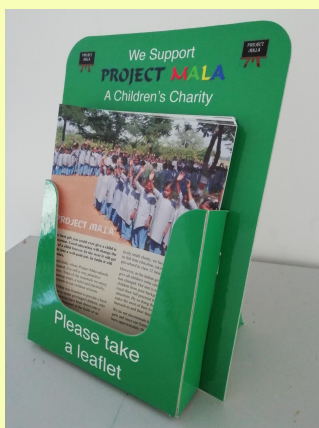

Mala presentation in London

One of our long term Indian supporters, Obeetee, is holding an exhibition of their new collection of hand woven rugs in London and has asked if we can give a talk to their customers on the work of Project Mala. If you would like to come and hear the talk and see some fine carpets at the same time let me know.

The launch event, which is being hosted by Lauren Totzke, the London based agent for Obeetee, takes place on the 3-5 December with a private drinks reception and canapes on Wednesday 4 December from 5-9pm at which I am speaking. The venue is Orangebox, 38 Northampton Road, London EC1R 0HU.

We are pleased to give talks on the work of Project Mala and are prepared to travel anywhere in the UK. So if you would like us to visit your school, club or just a group of friends, please get in touch.

The purpose of these talks is to make more people aware of Project Mala. We feel our sponsorship scheme is one of the best but, because we don't spend money on advertising, not many people are aware of us.

One way we are trying, is to get our leaflets wider distributed. We have developed a new stand to put in shops, restaurants, hotels, etc, where people might pick up a leaflet to read.

If you can think of any place that might take this stand please let us know.
